School to Adult Life Transition

SALT is a FREE monthly series developed to assist parents and their youth with disabilities (ages 14-22) for life through high school and beyond. This series hosted by MAP (Multi-Agency Partnerships) offers timely information and resources to navigate the transition from school to adulthood.

Join us Tuesday, September 17 at the Lima Public Library
6:00 – 7:30

Bring your student! Chance to win a $25 gift card!

The evening starts with a light meal. Parents attend the series while their students attend a program geared to their age group.

If transportation to this presentation is an issue – contact Beca Sheidler at 419-371-5942 by September 15.

Parents/Guardians:

Transition planning and the IEP

When to start, who is involved, what to know and why your input is important!
